Cruising Cuisine Dinner

You're out cruising on the boat, berthed at a marina in some exotic location or just anchored off the local beach. It doesn't matter. At least you're on the water, but as we all know cooking for the Captain and Crew while on board can have its challenges.

Pick something easy to prepare and cook on a boat?

What's your favourite Cruising "Comfort food"?

Do you normally catch it or do you need to un-packet it?

Come and share your Cruising "Signature Dish"
